Case Summary

Plaintiff was a patron at Defendant Sam's Club. She alleged that a rope used to petition off an aisleway was left in a position low to the floor which snagged her foot and caused her to fall. She suffered several fractures and a knee injury diagnosed 10 months after the incident. Defendant did not contest liability.

Plaintiff alleged that: (1) defendant failed to maintain a safe premises for patrons; (2) defendant knew or should have known the rope was hanging too low; and (3) she suffered serious injuries as a result of her fall, including a torn meniscus. Further, that there was no intervening event which would have caused the torn meniscus.

Defendant contended that: (1) the rope was open and obvious; (2) plaintiff should have seen it; and (3) plaintiff's torn meniscus was unrelated, but if it was, plaintiff exaggerated her condition.

Plaintiff was a 50 year old married female who was an X-ray technician.

Injury Text:

Fractured left ankle and fractured left elbow which did not require surgery. Plaintiff also claimed a torn meniscus (knee) diagnosed 10 months after the fall which required arthroscopic surgery. She claimed continuing arthritic problems.
